- Beautifully maintained and presented throughout

The village is centred around the serene River Welland, which winds gracefully through its heart, offering scenic walks, peaceful views and a wonderfully relaxed atmosphere. Deeping St James is rich in character, with a selection of traditional pubs, independent shops, cosy coffee houses and everyday amenities, all within easy walking distance - perfect for those who value convenience without sacrificing charm. A nearby bus stop provides straightforward connections to both Peterborough and Stamford, making this a remarkably accessible place to live while still enjoying the tranquillity of village life.

This enchanting chocolate box cottage highlights a homely feel and offered in beautiful decorative order throughout. Lovingly maintained by its current owner, the home blends timeless character with comfortable modern living, creating the perfect retreat for those who appreciate period charm, cosy spaces, and countryside walks right on the doorstep.

Stepping inside, the welcoming porchway leads into an impressive 24' lounge/dining room, a wonderfully light and airy space framed by elegant front facing cottage windows. Original exposed beams, an electric fireplace, and thoughtful built in shelving give this room its warm, traditional heart. The generous dining area is ideal for entertaining, with stairs rising to the first floor and useful understairs storage.

To the rear sits the kitchen/breakfast room, offering a practical layout with ample cabinetry, integrated appliances, and space for informal dining. A rear lobby leads out to the garden, and a separate utility room provides a dedicated space for laundry.

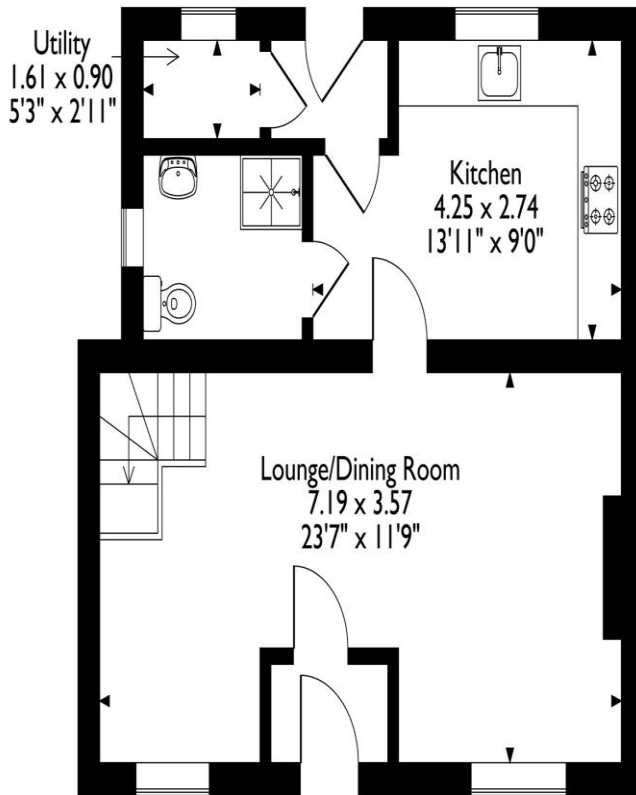

The ground floor also features a stylish contemporary bathroom, complete with a walk in double shower, heated towel rail, and sleek tiling.

Upstairs, the landing enjoys natural light from the rear window and showcases another lovely exposed beam.

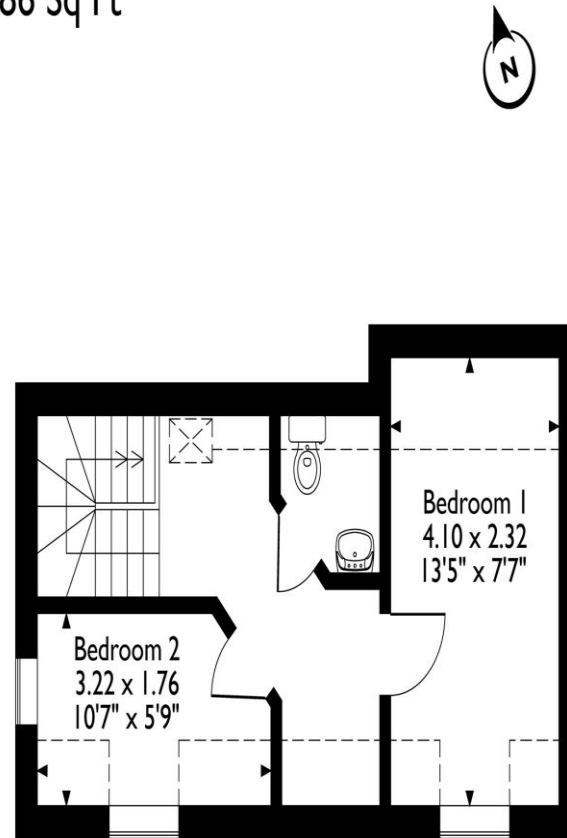

Bedroom One is a charming double with further beams and a cosy front facing dormer window.
